

MPLP Summer Law Clerk Training

Cooley Law School- Ann Arbor Campus

3475 Plymouth Road

Ann Arbor 48105

June 3, 2010

MPLP is sponsoring a one-day summer law clerk training to introduce law students to poverty law practice. We'll cover introductions to the basic substantive areas of legal services practice (family, housing, public benefits, consumer and elder law). See attached proposed agenda.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION**

There will be a small fee of $25 for the training to help with costs for lunch and materials; $50 for non- legal service programs. Please make checks payable to MPLP and submit with registrations.

Directions: The Ann Arbor Cooley Law School is located right off US 23 at the Plymouth Road exit at Plymouth and Green Road (the campus entrance is actually off Green Rd.) Parking is free. The training will be located on the 2nd floor in the back of the library.
